Foreword

Whoever touches this book touches a year filled with memories of friends, old and new, organizations, ball games, examinations, trips, parties and thrilled-packed days.

For who can forget the bustle and confusion; the joys and the good times; the woes and the bad times. But who would care to forget as it takes all of these things to produce a well rounded high school year.

As our high school days move into the past may these memories ever stay to add brightness and color to the shadows as our passing years make them lengthen.

Dedication

It is with great pride that we dedicate the "Tiger Tales" of 1962 to Mrs. Dorothy G. McCarter. We deeply appreciate her neverending efforts to help, not only in the class room, but with numerous outside activities. She truly goes the "second mile" for she lends a sympathetic ear to all our woes, also rejoices in our joys.

Mrs. McCarter, this dedication is a small way to show a great appreciation to you.

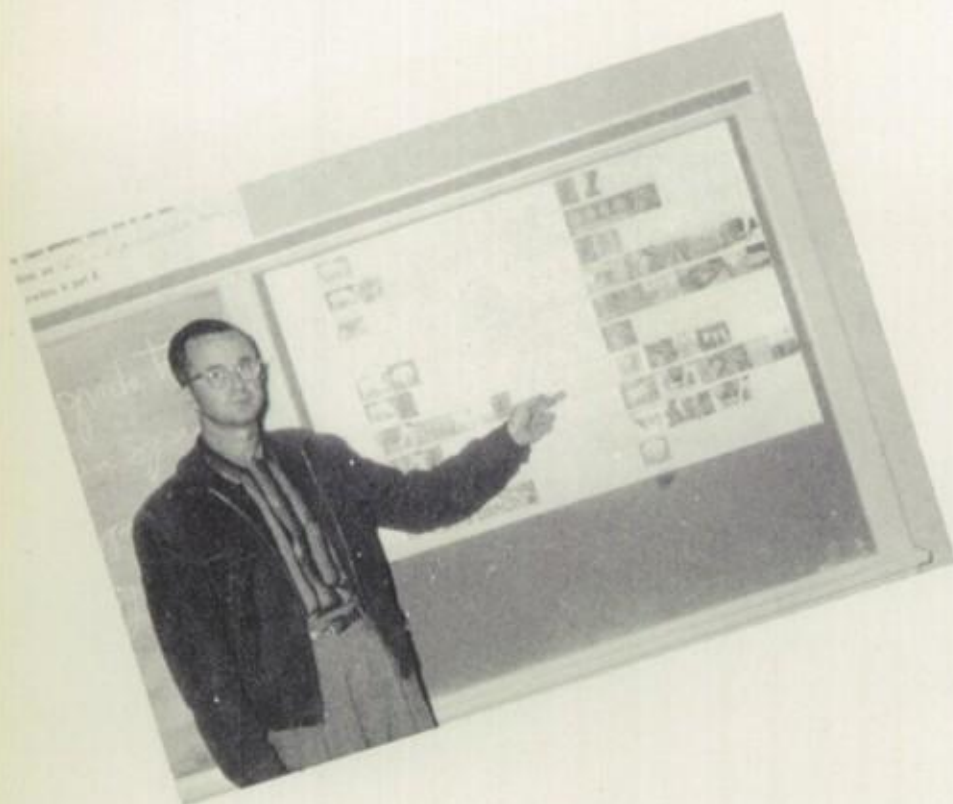

We Honor These . . .

Because of their interest in Crescent High School and the youth of our country we honor Mr. Guy W. Jones, Jr. and Reverend Frank Gillispie. In their work at Crescent they are not only training boys as farmers and ball players but as useful citizens.

For your interest and efforts; for your advice and example; for your encouragement and consideration - - - WE THANK YOU.

ALMA MATER

Crescent High School

Crescent High, all praise to thee!
Molder of our youth---
Guide our minds in search of wisdom
Souls in search of truth---
As we sing aloud together
Standing side by side---
How our hearts unite in praises
Crescent High our pride!

Crescent High, all hail to thee!
Standing on yon hill---
Thee we love and honor always
Hearts with rapture thrill---
As we journey through the years
We'll hold in memory---
Days within thy hallowed halls
Crescent, Hail to thee!

ADVERTISEMENTS

Tiger Tales

Staff of 1962 wish to express their deep appreciation to the business firms and to the individuals that contributed, in any way, to the making possible of our yearbook. We consider the yearbook one of the outstanding "Memory Collections" of our Crescent High School days, therefore we will ever be thankful to each one for making it possible for us to have this memory.
